Editorial Note

Dear Readers,

This session, the Editorial team is elated to bring forth the second edition of The Charis High Scoop.

This edition is a documentation of our lockdown virtual class diaries. Our students enthusiastically participated in diverse class activities and explored their creative ability by bringing out new and exciting ideas and also conveyed their emotions through art.

Our sincere condolences go to our kith and kin who have lost their loved ones in this fight against Corona virus. We wish you healing and peace. May the summer air bring with it the warmth of love and renew your shivered soul.

As we continue to make our way through the COVID situation, we would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to our charismatic teachers, our dutiful students and most importantly, our diligent parents for resolutely doing one's bit in these difficult and challenging times.

We wish you all a pleasant and interesting read of this issue.

~Ms. Nginloi Noklang

The woman, who inspires us to be a better version of ourselves: our first and our best teacher, our living Angel - Our Mother. Rightly said, a good mother is worth a thousand teachers.

Mother's Day is celebrated every year on the second Sunday of May. To honour our amazing mothers, students wrote tributes and created beautiful and meaningful paintings for their mothers.

I love my mother,

She rectify my mistakes,

Webinar on World No Tobacco Day

~Ms. Areni Humtsoe

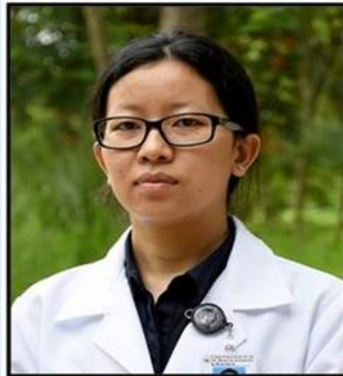

The World Health Organization has designated 31st May as 'World No Tobacco Day'. The theme for this year is 'Commit to Quit'.

Charis High Academy organized a webinar on 'World No Tobacco Day' for parents, teachers and students. The resource persons were Dr. (Ms.) Shirley T. Leivon, HOD, CIHSR, Dept. of Radiation Oncology and Ms. Linoka, Consultant for National Tobacco Control Programme (NTCP), Dimapur.

The webinar started with our Principal welcoming our administrator, resource persons, parents, teachers and students to the session. Next, Ms. Linoka and Dr. Shirley took turns to explain how tobacco adversely affects the immune system and impairs lung function, making the users more vulnerable to developing respiratory infections like colds, influenza, tuberculosis, pneumonia, chronic obstructive pulmonary diseases (COPD), etc. Miss Linoka, further emphasized that tobacco not only harms our physical and mental health but it affects our financial and social life as well. She also presented slides on Global Adult Tobacco Survey (GATS) Nagaland, 2009–10 and 2016–17.

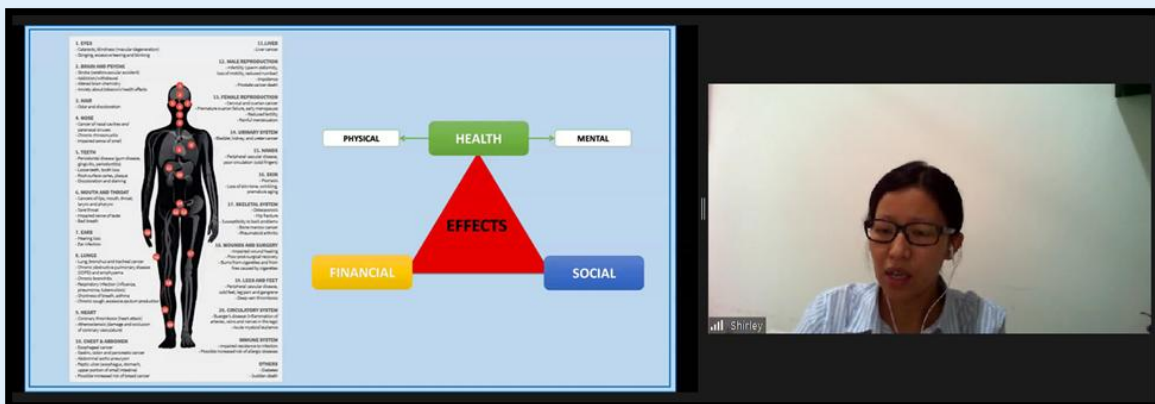

The session ended with our Science teacher, Mr. Sorin Jagoi, thanking the resource persons for sharing their valuable time and inputs to educate us on a healthy and smoke free lifestyle.

LEAD Summer Camp

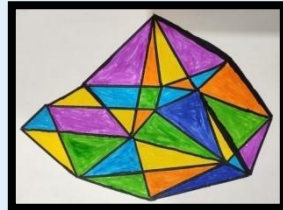

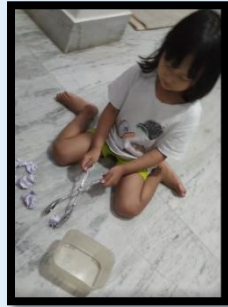

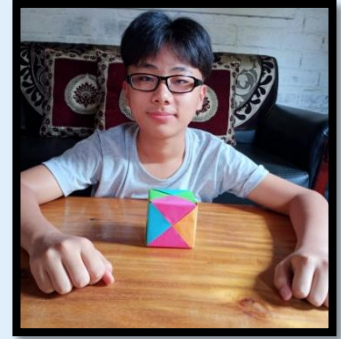

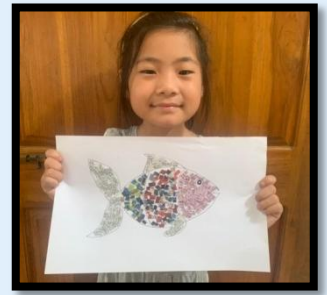

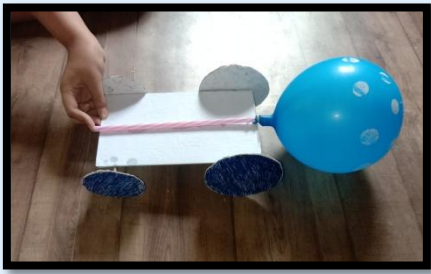

~Ms. Grace Kent

Since March 2020, children have been highly impacted by the COVID-19 lockdown. They had to juggle between online and offline learning, and hence lost out on some learning opportunities. The Summer Camp activities by LEAD School presented an excellent opportunity for teachers and parents to help bridge this learning gap.

As a part of the Summer Camp, LEAD has created a 6-week-long program filled with 12 delightful activities for a relaxing and engaging time. Each activity had been carefully planned to engage all types of students and to stimulate their cognitive skills and creativity. These activities were released on the LEAD Student and Parent App on a bi-weekly basis.

In the Northeast region, two of our teachers—Ms. Ruvokhrienuo and Ms. Tiajungla of JKG and SKG respectively—were also recognised for their efforts in getting the maximum participation from their classes during the Summer Camp. We are also absolutely proud of our students and parents who have whole-heartedly completed the activities. A big shout out goes to all of you!

World Day Against Child Labour

~Ms. Grace Kent

The International Labour Organization (ILO), the United Nations body that regulates the world of work, launched World Day Against Child Labour in 2002 in order to bring attention and join efforts to fight against child labour. The significance is to pay attention to the problem of child labour and to find ways to eradicate it.

Every year on 12th June, World Day Against Child Labour is organised to spread awareness about the harmful mental and physical problems faced by children forced into child labour all over the world. This year's theme is 'Act Now: End Child Labour'.

Not all work done by children should be classified as child labour. Children's participation in work that does not affect their health and personal development or interfere with their schooling is generally regarded as being something positive. This includes activities such as helping their parents around the home. These kinds of activities contribute to children's development and to the welfare of their families. They provide them with life skills and experience and help to prepare them to be productive members of society during their adult life.

Here's how our young learners give a helping hand to at home.

To commemorate World Day Against Child labour, the English Department organised various activities across the classes. We would like to congratulate all the students for taking part in the activities. As in every competition, there are those who shine above the rest. My Superhero, My Dad

~Ms. Areni Humtsoe

Father's Day signifies the pivotal role that fathers play in their children's lives, be it emotionally, mentally or even financially. Father's Day is a day for a very personalized celebration. A father's role cannot be explained in words. So, on Father's Day, we celebrate fatherhood and appreciate all the love and support they give us immensely throughout our lives.

Here are some of our children showing their love and respect for their fathers.

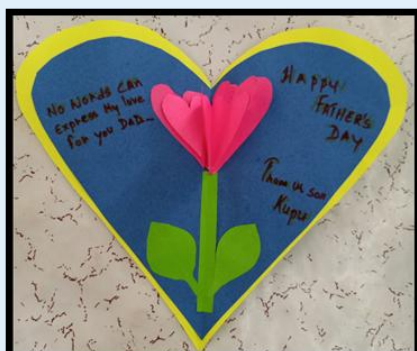

Our Heroes

Father's Day is dedicated to appreciate fathers, and honor them for their contribution, unwavering support and invaluable love. Although we don't require a specific day to express love to our father, this day comes as an opportunity.

In spite of his poor humor, over protectiveness and ultra strict rules, he is the only one who inspires us the most and the one we look up to and acknowledge in every possible way.

A father is as dedicated and supportive to a child's development as a mother. Nonetheless, we rarely show emotions to our father as much as we do, to our mothers. However it's not too late to start something new. Therefore, let us be more expressive to our loved ones and make them feel special.

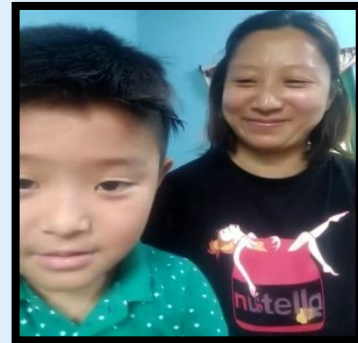

~Ms. Ruth Semy (Shadow Teacher)
